

TRAUMA-INFORMED CARE WORKSHOPS

For Early Childhood Providers and Administrators

Boston Medical Center's Project STRIVE (Supportive Trauma Interventions for Educators) will provide training and consultation to providers and administrators in Early Education and Care (EEC) settings across all seven regions in Massachusetts.

JULY 11th
JULY 17th
AUG 7th

9:30am to 12:30pm
Mass. Wide Online Training

3-Hour Trauma 101:

- Define trauma exposure
- Neurological, social, and emotional impacts of trauma
- Enhancing resilience and protective factors strategies
- Complimentary open access webinars on relevant topics

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

- Your Program or Business: center-based, Head Start or Early Head Start, home/family-based childcare, out-of-school time, pre-school, etc.
- Your Role: administrator, director or business owner, educator/provider lead or assistance, social worker, counselor, special education, etc.

Apply Today: bit.ly/strive-website

This work is supported by the Attorney General Maura Healy's Office and hosted in partnership with Mass. StrongStart Professional Development Centers.

Contact: Desiree.Hartman@bmc.org, 617-414-3640